

Graduate Management Programme (Bus)

On Go-Ahead's two-year bus management graduate programme you'll be exposed to the diversity of the business working with a variety of departments to understand the role each plays in making our vision a reality. As well as getting stuck into all aspects of operations management, from scheduling and customer service to basic engineering and supervisory roles, you'll even learn how to drive a bus! You can expect shift work alongside real responsibility, coordinating projects that will immediately impact the two-million people travelling on our network each day.

Salary: minimum of £25,000 per year

Start date:
September
2020

Duration: two years

Key requirements

- A degree in any discipline, all grades considered
- A passion for enhancing people's lives through public transport
- Full UK driving licence
- Flexibility to complete short placements in other Go-Ahead locations including internationally

What Go-Ahead can offer you

- Membership to the Young Bus Managers' Network and the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport
- The opportunity to undertake your Operators Licence Certificate of Professional Competence
- Full support from mentors, specialists and your own graduate community - we spend £22million per year on training and development, so make the most of what is on offer
- To become an Assistant Operations Manager or equivalent within two years
- Career progression – a senior manager role within five years – on track to be earning £35-40,000 per year
- Free travel on many of Go-Ahead's services

